

London School of Reflexology

Certificated Diploma Course in Power Reflexology

Monday 18th October 2010
10.00am – 5.30pm Cost: £85

This course will show you how to focus your treatments so you can have the best results with your clients presenting problem. Power reflexology will teach you how to confidently treat a client within a short time frame or to focus your treatment to just concentrate on their presenting problem. This method will teach you how to approach your reflexology in a more precise and effective system to meet your client's needs.

This one day course instructs you in ways in how to quickly and accurately identify the client's main presenting condition and adapt the treatment to focus on the key reflexes and system out of balance within a thirty minute treatment. This method aims at concentrating your skills on treating the client's condition holistically by eliminating certain reflexes in the treatment whilst putting more emphasis on other areas.

You will also learn a number of effective new techniques including linking and how to use a tapping method to unblock energies through the body and help restore free flowing energy channels. You will also learn techniques to protect your hands if you work at deep pressures as well as working with fingers and knuckles.

Power reflexology can help increase your client base by showing you how to adapt your treatments to offer cost effective sessions within the corporate world, treat during a lunch break, the NHS, at events or fates and to clients who cannot afford one hour sessions.

The day will teach you how to confidently provide a reflexology session in around 30 minutes or under.

You will be given a guide as part of the course handouts in the form of a booklet which lists a large number of common conditions and key reflexes out of balance. You will also be given a guide on how to treat common ailments within the systems of the body to help train you to focus your treatments.

On completing this course you will be awarded with a Diploma in;
Power Reflexology and gain 14 CPD points
